GROWER CHAMPAGNE

The combination of Fried Chicken and Champagne is one of the finest in the world. The bright, lush, effervescent zip of a fine glass of Champagne is particularly suited to the richness of the South's iconic dish; it cleanses the palate, lifts the spirits, and sets the stage for a damn fine eating experience. This list highlights some of our favorites - winemakers crafting personal expressions from their own small villages and grape parcels. We think it makes a convincing case for drinking more Champagne, more often.

Pétillant Naturel

Also known as "Pét-Nat," this style of sparkling wine is often low in alcohol, unfiltered, and highly drinkable. If Champagne is in a pair of leather monkstraps, Pet-Nat is wearing Birkenstocks.
